

Digital Estate Readiness Checklist

For Individuals and Families

Use this checklist to get organised and give your loved ones clarity when it matters most.
Check off what you've already done — circle what you'd like help with.

How to use this checklist

This document covers 9 sections of your digital estate — from the people who should help, to the accounts, documents, and devices they'll need to find.
Print this checklist, work through each section, and store it somewhere trusted — alongside your digital estate plan.

1 — About You	2 — Key People	3 — Estate Documents
4 — Supporting Documents	5 — Money & Accounts	6 — Email & Social Media
7 — Devices & Access	8 — Delegations	9 — Keeping Up to Date

Section 1 — About You

For individuals:

- ☐ My full legal name, birthdate, and current address are written down in one place.
- ☐ My main email address and phone number are clearly listed.
- ☐ I have chosen a trusted person to help with my digital affairs if needed.
- ☐ I have written down their name and contact information.
- ☐ I have a safe place (binder, folder, or secure vault) where this information is stored.

For households / families:

- ☐ We have a household name or label (e.g. "Smith Family").
- ☐ We know who the primary contact person is for important decisions.
- ☐ We have listed how many adults and dependents live in our household.
- ☐ Any special care needs for children, seniors, or others are written down.
- ☐ We have a shared place (binder, folder, or secure vault) for family documents.

Section 2 — Key People & Helpers

- ☐ Primary emergency contact listed (name, phone, relationship).
- ☐ Backup emergency contact listed.
- ☐ Health care decision-maker identified and documented.
- ☐ Person who can help with money and bills identified.
- ☐ Tech-savvy helper identified for accounts and devices.
- ☐ Lawyer, financial planner, or tax preparer details written down (if applicable).

For families:

- ☐ Guardians for minor children or dependents chosen and written down.
- ☐ Caregivers or home-health contacts listed (if applicable).

Section 3 — Core Estate Documents

Check off what you have (even if you're not sure where the original is):

- ☐ Last Will and Testament.
- ☐ Living or Revocable Trust.

- ☐ Financial Power of Attorney.
- ☐ Health Care Power of Attorney / Health Care Proxy.
- ☐ Advance Directive / Living Will for medical wishes.
- ☐ HIPAA form allowing others to see medical information.
- ☐ Beneficiary forms for life insurance and retirement accounts.
- ☐ A clear note about what should happen to my digital accounts and online life.

For families:

- ☐ Each adult has their own will or basic estate documents.
- ☐ Guardians for children or dependents are written into at least one document.

Section 4 — Important Supporting Documents

- ☐ Personal ID (driver's licence, passport) copied or noted.
- ☐ Birth certificate (and adoption papers if applicable).
- ☐ Marriage certificate and/or divorce papers (if applicable).
- ☐ Social Security information noted in a safe place.
- ☐ Life, health, home, and auto insurance details recorded.
- ☐ Home deed or lease information written down.
- ☐ Vehicle titles and registrations listed.
- ☐ Recent tax returns (last 1–3 years) stored where someone can find them.
- ☐ Safe-deposit box location, key, and who can access it.
- ☐ Any business ownership or partnership documents noted.
- ☐ Memberships, charities, or organisations important to you listed.
- ☐ Special notes or instructions for your family written down in your own words.

Section 5 — Money, Bills & Subscriptions

Think about anything that takes money out of your account or bills you regularly:

- ☐ Main checking and savings accounts listed.
- ☐ Credit cards and store cards listed.
- ☐ Loans and mortgages listed (with lenders).
- ☐ Retirement accounts and investment accounts listed.
- ☐ Online payment apps (PayPal, Venmo, Cash App, etc.) listed.
- ☐ Utility accounts: power, gas, water, trash listed.
- ☐ Phone, internet, and TV providers listed.
- ☐ Insurance billing accounts listed.
- ☐ Streaming services (Netflix, Hulu, etc.) listed.
- ☐ Cloud storage and software subscriptions listed.
- ☐ Website domains and hosting accounts listed (if applicable).

For families:

- ☐ Each adult's income and main accounts are listed in one directory.
- ☐ Shared family subscriptions are clearly marked.

Section 6 — Email, Social Media & Online Accounts

- ☐ Main email accounts listed (including recovery emails).
- ☐ Phone numbers and carriers listed (who has which number).
- ☐ Major social media accounts listed (Facebook, Instagram, X/Twitter, LinkedIn, etc.).
- ☐ Other online communities or forums that matter to you listed.
- ☐ Messaging apps that matter (WhatsApp, Messenger, Signal, etc.) listed.
- ☐ Instructions written for each social account (keep, memorialise, or delete).
- ☐ Instructions written for email (who, if anyone, should have access).

For families:

- ☐ Each adult's key social and email accounts listed.
- ☐ Children's social/gaming accounts listed (if applicable).
- ☐ Any shared "family" accounts clearly marked.

Section 7 — Devices & Access

- ☐ My primary phone is listed (make/model and who it belongs to).
- ☐ My computer(s), tablet(s), or laptop(s) are listed.
- ☐ Any external hard drives, USBs, or home servers are listed.
- ☐ My password manager (if I use one) is listed.
- ☐ Someone I trust knows where to find the "key" to access important logins — without putting passwords in unsafe places.
- ☐ My home Wi-Fi/router information is written down in a safe place.
- ☐ Any important smart-home devices (locks, cameras, alarms, etc.) are listed.

For families:

- ☐ Each adult's main device is listed and labelled.
- ☐ Shared family devices are listed and labelled.
- ☐ Instructions exist for how to handle old devices (wipe, donate, or destroy).

Section 8 — Delegations & What My Family Needs to Know

- ☐ I have written who should help with emergencies.
- ☐ I have written who should help with money and bills.
- ☐ I have written who should help with medical decisions (if needed).
- ☐ I have written who is allowed to talk to my providers (bank, doctor, advisor).

I have a simple page or letter titled "What My Family Needs to Know" that explains:

- ☐ Where things are.
- ☐ Who to call first.
- ☐ What matters most to me.

For families:

- ☐ We have talked as a family about who will handle different roles.
- ☐ We have a plan for children's photos, school accounts, and memories.

Section 9 — Keeping Things Up to Date

- ☐ I have done at least one "digital checkup" in the last 12 months.
- ☐ I have removed accounts or devices I no longer use.
- ☐ I have updated my list of accounts and documents in the last year.
- ☐ I have told at least one trusted person that this plan exists and where it is.

Turn this checklist into a secure digital plan

If you checked many boxes — you're already ahead. If you circled items you're missing, that's where we can help.

- Organise your accounts, devices, and documents into a clear, simple plan.
  - Create a private summary for your family or chosen helpers.
- Keep everything updated so your loved ones aren't left guessing.
